

May 5, 1927

Miss Peacock Dies In Aberdeen Hospital

Miss Anne Louise Peacock, a cousin of Mrs. E. W. Spence, who has been making her home in Groton for a short time, died in an Aberdeen hospital last week.

She has not been in the best of health for several months, and was taken to Aberdeen a short time ago to undergo an operation. At the time of her removal to Groton, she was thought to be in a satisfactory condition, but later developments necessitated her removal back to Aberdeen and she died there following a second operation.

Miss Peacock was born at North Ormesby, England, Dec. 13, 1870, and in 1913 came to this country, making her home with the Rev. and Mrs. Spence when not employed elsewhere. She was a devout Christian since youth and devoted much time to Sunday school and church activities, serving at times in the capacity of Sunday school teacher.

Her only relatives living at present are George Peacock, a half brother, Mrs. C. B. Pickering, an aunt, and Mrs. Spence, of Groton, a cousin of the deceased.

The funeral was held at the home of Rev. Spence, Monday afternoon, Rev. Ray conducting the services and the remains were laid to rest in Groton cemetery.